Varsity 73—Reynolds 9.

Feb. 6. — The St. Joe boys enjoyed a regular picnic Saturday when they met the Reynolds team in the Rensselaer armory. It was really too easy for our fellows, so Capt. Schellinger ran in his subs for the second half, Lause filling Schelly's place and Ehrman Beckman's. Annen did some spectacular work, making seventeen ringers. Schellinger also starred, making nine. Here is hoping they will show up as good in their game at Indianapolis next Saturday as they did in this one.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

Seniors 23—IV Latins 15.

The Senior League opened with a game between the Seniors and the IV Latins on Jan. 30th. From the very beginning the game was an exciting one. It rather gained than lost interest as it drew to a close, for the Latins were determined to make the Seniors earn their victory by hard work. It would be difficult to point out the star players in this game, for each man did good work and played with a spirit that should be kept up during the entire season. When the whistle called an end to the game the 23-15 score left the Seniors winners by a nice margin.

Lineup.

Seniors		IV Latins
Sheetz	RF	Haley
Maloney	LF	Fogarty
Grothjan	C	Bruin
Farrell	RG	Stewart
Wonderly	LG	Silverstein

Referees—Schellinger and Beckman.

III Latins 16—III Commercials 12.

Jan. 31. — This game of the Freshies and Commercials was a thriller as the close score indicates. Ricks, the Coms' only resort on the offensive, was kept well under guard by Hellen, which explains the Com. defeat. McLaughlin starred for the Latins, dropping in several good field goals.

Seniors 29—III Latins 12.

Feb. 6.—In a rough and hard fought game, played at Rensselaer, the Seniors managed to retain their 1000 and compelled the unwilling III Latins to acknowledge defeat with the score at 29-12. Maloney starred for the Seniors. Referee—J. Cherry.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

Exiles 12—Cardinals 14.

The basket ball season opened on Jan. 28th with a Junior game between the Exiles and Cardinals. Being the first game, the players could hardly be expected to play real fast basket ball. However, McGahey did good work for the Cardinals, and G. Ryan and O'Meara located the ring for the Exiles quite frequently.

Referee—Stewart.

Blue Bells 22—Crescents 10.

Jan 30. — The Blue Bells came up against the Crescents determined to show them how basket ball should be played. The Crescents were unable to withstand their impetuous attack and went down to defeat with the score 22-10.

Laurels 25—Invincibles 17.

Jan. 31.—The Laurels won a fast and rough game from the Invincibles to the tune of 25-17. What the Invincibles need is a little more speed and pass work.

Exiles 17—Cardinals 8.

Jan. 31.—Although McGahey's quintette put up a stiff fight, O'Meara and his Exiles were out for revenge and gave the Cardinals an extra large dose of their own medicine as the score 17-8 shows. Tremel was the bright light of the Exiles.

Cardinals 15—Blue Bells 5.

Feb. 3.—In this game McGahey held up the reputation of his team defeating Leriger's squad by a good margin.

Exiles 29—Crescents 5.

Feb. 3. — The Crescents met their Waterloo when they came up against O'Meara's big five. Beckert of the Exiles beat Striff to the ball nearly every shot.

Invincibles 16—Blue Bells 11.

Feb 4—In a fast game between Collins' and Leriger's teams the Invincibles came near being false to their name, for the Blue Bells gave them a good battle.

---

Academic League.*Navy 17—Tigers 6.

Jan. 31—The Academic League opened Sunday evening with a fast and hard fought game. The Navy triumphed over the Tigers by a score of 17-6, and by their encouraging work kept the game at high pitch continually.

White Stars 10—Shamrocks 5.

Feb. 3—DeJaco's chesty five proved too much for the Shamrocks, who were forced to bow to the score of 10-5.

Navy 10—White Stars 7.

Feb. 4. — Two games in succession proved a knockout blow for the White Stars when they allowed the Navy to win out 10-7.

Tigers 13—Shamrocks 4.

Feb. 7—The battle of Marathon was fought over again Sunday. The Tigers took the role of the Athenians, defeating the Shamrocks 13-4.

Juniors 12—Religious 11.

Feb. 7—Although the Seculars defeated the Religious by one point, the St. Xavier boys played better basket ball than they did. It is up to the north-end boys to work a little harder or they may not be so fortunate the next time.

---

Minim League.*Larks 12—Wrens 9.

Feb. 4—The Minims made their debut with a game between the Wrens and the Larks. The Larks, true to their name, soared the higher, winning out by three points.

Otto Ricks has recently been placed on the varsity by the A. A. Board. Godfrey Silverstein was elected cheer-master.

Cheer Up!

The Cheer's Weather Forecaster announces that the weather for the following six weeks will have all the indications of Spring. Tuesday, February 2nd. was Groundhog Day. Our prophet arose very early and kept his upturned face riveted upon the screened disk the whole day. Had the sun come out from behind the clouds just long enough for Mr. Groundhog to see his shadow, he would immediately have gone back to his abode, curled himself up into a ball and slept till the following six weeks of winter had disappeared. But that was not to be. Not even for a fraction of a second did the sun cast any shadows upon the earth, and the result was that Mr. Groundhog stretched himself after his Winter's nap and began to forage for food. Our hope is that the Forecaster was wide awake on the job and that his forecasts are correct.

Obituary.

St. Joseph's has again been visited by death. After suffering about two weeks with pneumonia, Bro. Stephen Keberle passed peacefully away early Thursday morning.

Brother Stephen was born in Helberdingen, Wurtemberg, Germany, Sept 2, 1841. He entered the Precious Blood Community Nov. 30, 1867 at Wapakoneta, Ohio and had been at St Joseph's eighteen years.

Fr. Felician sang the Solemn Requiem Mass in the college chapel Saturday morning, and the interment was made in the Catholic cemetery south of the college.

Rev. Leo Faurote, a former student and a graduate of class '07, spent a few days at St. Joseph's.

Geo. Schwartz—I wish summer were here.

Wigmore—I don't, I always hate to hear the grass mown.

EDITORIALS.

DOWN in the heart of everyone there is a feeling of pleasure and profound gratitude that the examinations are at last over. This is especially true of those who were shuddering lest they be cast into the abyss of Flunk-erino. This deep pit has more terrors for most students than that famous pit over which swung the fabulous pendulum of Poe. As a student goes into a class test and knows he is not prepared, a feeling arises way down in the pit of his stomach which we imagine that man must have felt who was chased by a bull and came to the top of a precipice. Now this is all over; the reaction has set in. All the splitting headaches and heartburns are way off in the long ago of two weeks. Now you hear "Nothing to do till next exams." Let us not flatter ourselves that we can simply take it easy. We realize it is fine to take a couple days to rest up in after our labors of the past few weeks, but while we are resting let us not leave class after class come and go without preparing for them. If we do, the next exams will loom up as large and formidable as the last ones.

THE varsity will receive a warm reception when it arrives in Indianapolis to play the Dental College next Saturday. Word has reached here that every former St. Joe student in and near the city — and there are many of them there — has obliged himself to be at the game with a live rooting squad to encourage our men. This shows that our former students are still loyal to St. Joe and her varsity. If we lose this game it will not be the fault of our Indianapolis friends.

The talk which Mr. Lewis of the Navy League gave at the college on Jan 27th was very interesting. He handled the subject of Navy armament in a masterly manner.

Leon Dufrane, a St. Joe graduate now studying at St. Mary's Seminary, Cincinnati, was a recent visitor.

Have You Seen It?

There was an old man
Who had a wooden leg.
He became very tired
Of stumping a peg;
So he took two spools
And an old tin can
And made himself a Ford
And the darned thing ran.

J. Ryan (newcomer) — Can you tell me, Adam, where the library is?

Ritter—How did you know my name was Adam?

Ryan — Guessed it.

Ritter — Well your'e sure good at guessing

Ryan (proudly) — Yes, I am.

Ritter—Then guess where the library is.

MY VALENTINE.

Your picture in my heart is framed
Good pancakes, rich and fine;
Of all I cherish, you are named
My dearest Valentine.

You cheer and comfort and sustain,
You meet the Friday need;
The bounteous feast and menu plain
You grace them both indeed.

When the way is smooth and clear
Or things are out of time,
Your potent aid is always near,
My dearest Valentine.
